

Sculptor's primitive expression

This sculpture titled "Jesse" displays artist Deborah Masters' use of powerful events and situations recreated in the style of ancient Egyptian and primitive African art. The nationally renowned sculptor will give a free lecture presentation as part of the Summer Arts festival at 8 p.m. on Tuesday in Room 101 of the Natural Resources Building at Humboldt State University.