

Deborah Masters

Circle, 1988

Hydrocal, Graphite and Wood

Courtesy: LedisFlam Gallery,
New York

Deborah Masters' sculptures are based on emotional real life issues. Circle, constructed of hydrocal, a plaster-like material, was inspired by women's ability to deal with tragedy. The artist is influenced by numerous cultures.